

RÉAL RAYMOND APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Montréal, September 23, 2010 – The Board of Directors of Aéroports de Montréal is pleased to announce the appointment of Réal Raymond as Chair of the Board of the Corporation.

A well-known figure in the business world, Mr. Raymond spent his entire career with National Bank of Canada, where he held positions of increasing responsibility, finally serving as President and Chief Executive Officer from 2002 to 2007. As President and CEO, he oversaw the strategies, directions and development of the Bank and its subsidiaries. His previous senior management positions with National Bank included heading the corporate banking and treasury and financial markets divisions.

Mr. Raymond sits on the boards of a variety of companies and organizations, including the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec, Metro Inc., Héroux-Devtek Inc. and the Institut de recherche en immunologie et en cancérologie. He is also Chancellor of Université du Québec à Montréal.

Mr. Raymond is very involved in the Montréal community, among other things serving as Co-Chair of the 2009 Centraide of Greater Montréal fundraising campaign.

Aéroports de Montréal is the local airport authority responsible for the management, operation and development of Montréal–Trudeau and Montréal–Mirabel international airports under the terms of a lease entered into with Transport Canada in 1992. The Corporation employs a total of some 600 persons at both airports and at head office.
